Artistri Sud ASSET Program Launched in Ecuador!

The latest news on our most recent program!

When our founder, Jennifer Lonergan, returned from Ecuador after launching our first Artistri Sud Social Entrepreneur Training (ASSET) program in that country, a new energy surrounded her.

This program had exceeded her expectations in many ways: differences in backgrounds were celebrated in ways that had not occurred before, the program had been adapted allowing to better equip the women in the long run and, most importantly, we left with women not only feeling more empowered but truly identifying themselves as individuals capable of so much more...

SAVE THE DATE: Giving Tuesday!

What's Giving Tuesday? It's the international day of charitable giving! This year we have a target to raise $15,000, which will allow us to support 10 participants of our Ecuador ASSET program go from leaders to trainers. We also have matching gifts so that your gift for Giving Tuesday will have double the impact.

Meet Phin Tan Thi!

When Phin Tan Thi showed up for her admission interview last September, no one thought she'd end up taking on the many roles that she did over the course of the year.

"She seemed to be a bit of an outsider," says Lonergan, Artistri Sud Executive Director who led the needs assessment and data collection in northern Vietnam. "She was the only Red Dao participant in a group of over 40 ethnic Hmong women," says Lonergan, "she was a bit of a lone wolf."
